

"Best Books, Music & Movies in Cape Town"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 6 Locations Bookmarked

Exclusive Books

"High Quality Service and Books"

One of 18 branches countrywide, Exclusive Books in the V & A Waterfront offers high quality service and a good variety of books, magazines and videos. Amongst other sections, there is a good choice of books on computers, business, art, photography, and architecture, and the selection of magazines - both foreign and local - are worth perusing. Join the Fanatics Club to earn points and receive discount vouchers. Check website for other details.

☎ +27 21 419 0905

🌐 www.exclusivebooks.co.za/

✉ waterfront@exclusivebooks.co.za

📍 Wharf Street, Victoria Wharf, Shop 6160, Cape Town

Reader's Den Bookshop

"Book For Every Taste"

Besides the large stock of general second-hand books, Reader's Den specializes mainly in novels, autobiographies, african, science fiction, classics, esoterics, leather bound and antiquarian. There is also a good selection of used National Geographic magazines, so put on your reading glasses and lose yourself amongst the reams of literature. Although you cannot trade your books in, the shop will sometimes purchase second-hand literature.

📷 by "Brenda-Starr" ©

☎ +27 21 423 2346

🌐 www.readersden.co.za/

✉ readersden@iafrica.com

📍 161 Long Street, Cape Town

The Book Lounge

"Unique Bookstore Experience"

The Book Lounge is not just another bookstore; it is an experience. The floor to ceiling glass windows of this historic building display the best finds and invites one in to go browse. The staff members are knowledgeable, very helpful and enjoy discussing literature with customers at leisure. The children's section is impressive and on Saturday mornings children can come at 11:00 for a story reading. Regular book events are held, like readings and discussions on weekday evenings, which makes this a popular spot for all lovers of literature. There is also an intimate coffee shop in the basement where shoppers can lounge for a bit and enjoy The Book Lounge's impressive selection.

📷 by PublicDomainPictures ©

☎ +27 21 462 2425

🌐 www.booklounge.co.za/

✉ booklounge@gmail.com

📍 71 Roeland Street, Cape Town

Wordsworth

"Espresso In Literary Surroundings"

One of four branches, the V & A Waterfront Wordsworth bookshop has an excellent selection of new books and a cozy coffee shop within the store. Wordsworth covers all the usual genres, but are particularly good in esoterics, science, maths, and business. A 20% discount is given on hardcover fiction and the amicable staff will source books not in stock. Join their Book Club for some great deals (including 20% off paperback fiction).

+27 21 461 8464

Mill Street, Gardens Shopping Centre, Cape Town

by Abee5

Quagga Art & Books

"An Antiquarian Collection"

On Main Road in the beautiful Kalk Bay you can find the Quagga Art & Books store. The store is famous for its wide assortment of antiquarian books on various subjects. These books are of fine quality and are sold either individually or as complete collections. The store also stocks paintings, watercolors, maps, modern first editions and other collector's items. The Quagga store frequently ships items abroad and welcomes inquiries from all over the world.

+27 21 788 2752

www.quaggabooks.co.za/

info@quaggabooks.co.za

86 Main Road, Cape Town

by arembowski

Kalk Bay Books

"With a view"

Kalk Bay Books is positioned at 124, Main Road, Kalk Bay in the city of Cape Town. It is often described as a bookstore with one of the best views due to its location at scenic Kalk Bay. Apart from perusing through books, visitors and locals both flock to the store to partake in discussions, launches of new books and meetings with visiting authors. The store operates in winters from 9a to 5p and in summers from 9a to 6p.

+27 21 788 2266

www.kalkbaybooks.co.za/

books@kalkbaybooks.co.za

124 Main Road, Kalk Bay, Cape Town

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com