The Ava Gallery

"Contemporary Art at its Best"

Church Street is where you can find the AVA art gallery. It is most likely the one of the oldest not-for-profit galleries of the city and is dedicated to developing the contemporary visual art scene of South Africa. AVA regularly hosts month long exhibitions that showcase performances, paintings, installations, ceramics, and photographs. The gallery has roots that go back all the way to the year 1850 and their presence has definitely shaped the art of the city.

Goodman Gallery

"Telling Tales Through Art"

Goodman Gallery is one of the shining stars in Africa's contemporary art circuit. In Cape Town, the gallery is located in the old Fairweather House, and is a premier venue for art exhibitions and art festivals. Showcasing the works of top artists and painters, Goodman Gallery gives its visitors something to ponder over. Every display has a topical value and narrates a typically African tale. The gallery is a wonderful platform for budding artists in the country and abroad. Goodman Gallery is one of the most intriguing places to be; it has the power to turn you into an art-lover. Check website for upcoming exhibitions.

Whatiftheworld Gallery

"Hip and Innovative Woodstock Gallery"

Originally a tiny gallery in Cape Town's City Centre, the WhatiftheWorld Gallery has since moved to bigger premises in what is becoming the rising creative neighborhood of Woodstock. Selected in 2007 by Contemporary Magazine in London as one of the Top 50 Emerging Galleries from Around the World, the gallery has become a hot platform of emerging contemporary South African artists. As a big supporter of local talent the gallery has launched the careers of several young artists and hosts regular critically-acclaimed solo and group exhibitions. It is one of the hottest galleries on the Cape Town arts scene and ideal for scouting out the local scene.
