Maritime Museum of the Atlantic

"A Popular Maritime Museum"

At the Maritime Museum of Atlantic, you can explore the hydrographic research vessel, CSS Acadia, which is berthed at this museum's wharf. At other times, content yourself with wandering through the William Robertson & Son Ship Chandlery. For those interested in the Titanic, you might be aware of the fact that the recovered bodies of the tragedy were brought to the city's morgue and then interred here in 1912. Watch a film depicting the tragedy that was the Halifax Explosion in 1917. Check out more than 40 small watercraft and thousands of artifacts. Souvenirs can be purchased in the Museum Shop. The Museum is also rented out for different events.

Harbor Hopper Tours

"Here's One Way to Go"

The Harbor Hopper Tour happens aboard a Lark V, built during the Vietnam War years to navigate on land and water. Individuals and groups up to 41 can be accommodated for a 55-minute tour. On the tour you will see it all - gardens, famous old churches and the City Hall. Then it's into the water for a different perspective. You can get your tickets at Harbor Hopper's kiosk, located next to the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic.

Woozles

"Kid Zone"

Operating since more than three decades, Woozles is one of the oldest stores in the region. A world for children, this store has an array of books, tapes and fun things to do to keep any child interested. Whether you want the classics or latest editions for your little and not-so-little ones, the store offers various genres in beautifully packaged gift sets. There are special low-cost workshops too; subjects such as candle making, book design, yo-yo tricks and how to make your own rain stick are covered regularly. Beside books and CDs, Woozles offers a wide variety of games and is a perfect place to stop by if you are wanting to shop for your little princes or princesses.

The Halifax Public Gardens

"Lush Greenery Downtown"

To walk through the iron gates of The Halifax Public Gardens is to step back a century; Canada's first public gardens have that effect. Since 1867, visitors have enjoyed the flowers, trees, fountains, a pond and winding paths. Sit on a bench near the Victorian bandstand and listen to the music and marvel at the beauty of a huge Rhododendron in bloom. Bring lunch, you'll want to stick around. One thing to remember while visiting the park is that opening times vary in the winter and summer seasons.

Nova Scotia Museum of Natural History

"Bird, Bees & Butterflies"

Within walking distance of downtown, Nova Scotia Museum of Natural History is a must see. Beautiful exhibits show life as it was for Nova Scotia natives. Examine the exquisite bead and quillwork on ancient clothing or check out the displays of local animals and insects. There is a see-through beehive that allows you to watch the critters go about their business. Kids especially love petting Gus the turtle, finding hiding places of tiny mice and voles and watching butterflies in the summer months.

Emera Oval

"Frozen Fun"

The Emera Oval is an ice skating rink that is impossible to miss on the Cogswell Street. Open year round, the rink serves as a recreational facility for all those interested in ice skating and speed skating. If you wish to learn, skating classes are also available at the center. Those who are just accompanying friends but don't really wish to try the sport for themselves, can cheer them from the viewing area. The facility has also been used for several national and local level competitions in the past and has been extremely popular since its opening in 2010.

The Cole Harbour Heritage Farm Museum

"Back a Hundred Years"

Cole Harbour Heritage Farm Museum is a fine place to check out a farmer's life back in the 19th Century. Wander through barns, houses, a blacksmith shop and more, for a first-hand look at the hardworking existence of those who filled the markets in those days. Gardening is done here the old fashioned way. Herbs and perennials await your nose and eye. On site is the Rose & Kettle Tearoom where you can have a cuppa after wandering the farm. And, of course, the museum is full of fascinating information. Guided Tours can also be arranged by the museum. Note: The museum is open from mid-May to mid-October.

Hatfield Farm

"Farmland Adventures"

Hatfield Farm is a favorite with horse riding enthusiasts and offers miles of trails through picturesque woods. With wagon and sleigh rides, riding classes, and pony rides for children, it is the best place in Halifax to learn horse riding. Activities range from short rides for kids to lessons in advanced horse handling, grooming, tacking and western riding for adults. You can also learn more about other farm animals at the Petting Zoo, play mini golf at a course surrounded by wilderness, and end the day dancing and eating by the campfire. Do not forget to take kids to the Rubber Rodeo where they can bounce and jump to their heart's content. The beautiful farmland and its accompanying lodge and restaurant can be rented for hosting weddings and corporate events.
