The Dome

"The Hipster's Club"

The Dome is known for funky DJ music, outstanding theme parties and an extensive choice in drinks. This club boasts four bars and a dance floor with dance poles and boxes! With more than five well-known resident and guest DJs, it has music to suit every taste, and its late-night hours are well-suited for hipsters. Young and stylish people in Halifax come here to dance to the most popular tracks of the day. This club also offers good packages to host corporate parties and product launches. However, it has a strict dress code and requires ID proof before admission. Prior booking is not a must but advisable since The Dome sees hundreds of guests everyday.

Taboo Nightclub

"Customized Parties"

Taboo Nightclub is an upscale partying venue in Downtown Halifax with luxurious interiors and personalized service. Dress up in your very best while coming here as Taboo has a strict dress policy. Once inside, head to the bar for an Ace of Spades (Armand de Brignac) champagne or a premium martini like Soho Good, which combines the flavors of lychee, cranberry, pineapple and watermelon. The club's dance floor is usually full of exuberant youngsters tapping their feet to groovy tracks spun by popular DJs. If you desire greater privacy, book one of the 10 VIP rooms to lounge comfortably on wraparound sofas, admire beautiful wall art, and enjoy luxury wines and shooters with close friends. Taboo Nightclub also offers bottle service and packages for corporate and social parties.
