Santa Fe Tacqueria

"Mexicano Treat"

Among the many restaurants in the Nob Hill area, this may be the only authentic Mexican one of the bunch. The delicacies served here are prepared based on traditional recipes, which the owner learned from his mother. The fresh, deli-style food includes the usual burritos, tacos and nachos. One of the best items at Santa Fe Tacqueria is the taco salad, which comes with or without meat. Try a corn quesadilla, typically made with flour tortillas. There is also a full bar where you will find margaritas and a good selection of micro brews.
