

"Best Historic Hotels in Albuquerque"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 6 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Booking.com

Hotel Parq Central

"Historic Boutique Hotel"

Located in downtown Albuquerque, Hotel Parq Central is truly an oasis in the city. Built in 1926, this boutique hotel blends the historic with the modern, with homey contemporary decor mixed with antique touches. If you want a romantic retreat book a stay in one of their three cottages, this large suite feels like an alluring home-away-from-home complete with a fireplace and a patio. Make sure you visit the rooftop lounge for a stunning view of the city.

☎ +1 505 242 0040

🌐 www.hotelparqcentral.com/

✉ info@hotelparqcentral.com

📍 806 Central Avenue
Southeast, Albuquerque NM

📷 by zevhonith

Mauger Estate Bed and Breakfast Inn

"Victorian Bed and Breakfast Inn"

Travelers who want the little extras that can not be found in hotels and motels will want to stay here. Mauger Estate Bed and Breakfast Inn is a historic Victorian house that has been renovated and is beautifully maintained. Each guest room has a private bath, refrigerator and coffee maker. If that is not enough, the hosts provide you with a phone, internet connection and fax service so you will not miss any of those important business communications during your stay. Breakfast is served buffet-style with dishes like Orange Pecan French Toast, or Asparagus Soufflé. Meals are always spiced up with green chili dishes.

☎ +1 505 242 8755

🌐 www.maugerbb.com/

✉ maugerbb@aol.com

📍 701 Roma Avenue
Northwest, Albuquerque NM

📷 by Bottger Mansion of Old Town

Bottger Mansion of Old Town

"Historic Bed & Breakfast"

Stay in Old Town Albuquerque where you can walk to everything, including shops, galleries, restaurants, museums, and parks! Enjoy a memorable stay at Bottger Mansion of Old Town with modern amenities including WiFi. Guests love the great complimentary breakfast, free parking and beautiful yard. All of the rooms have private baths, air conditioning, flat panel cable TV, iPod Home docking station, and more. Bottger Mansion of Old Town is close to airport, downtown and the sprawling Rio Grande Zoo.

☎ +1 505 243 3639

🌐 www.bottger.com

✉ info@bottger.com

📍 110 San Felipe Northwest,
Albuquerque NM

Casas de Suenos Old Town Historic Inn

"Old Town Country Inn"

Situated on a garden compound in New Mexico, this historic bed and breakfast features comfortably furnished units with free Wi-Fi. It is a 10-minute walk from the Botanic Gardens & Zoo, as well as charming Old Town Albuquerque. Each guest unit at Casas de Suenos Old Town Historic Inn boasts a separate living area complete with antique furnishings. Cable TV is included. Select rooms feature a kitchen and a dining area. A gourmet breakfast of eggs, bacon, green Chile burritos and more is served at Casas de Suenos. All meals are cooked-to-order and served hot. Guests can also enjoy fresh fruit, toast and cereal in the sun room complete with a fireplace. Tea and coffee is provided. Albuquerque Museum of Art, Natural History Museum is 10 minutes' walk away from this bed and breakfast.

+1 505 247 4560

www.casasdesuenos.com/ info@casasdesuenos.com

310 Rio Grande Boulevard
Southwest, Albuquerque NM

Hotel Albuquerque at Old Town

"See The City"

The Hotel Albuquerque at Old Town offers a bit of style during your stay in Albuquerque. The rooms contain authentic southwestern art and furnishings, adding to the local vibe. There is also a full size outdoor swimming pool that is very popular with guests.

+1 505 843 6300

www.hotelabq.com/

800 Rio Grande Blvd. NW,
Albuquerque NM

Los Poblanos Inn

"Historic Country Inn"

This cozy country inn is a quiet retreat for the business or leisure traveller. It is also on the National Registry of Historic Places. If you would like to step back in time, but keep all the modern conveniences, Los Poblanos Inn is the place to stay. Set among 25 acres of lavender fields and lush formal gardens, Los Poblanos is one of the most prestigious properties in the Southwest. Detailed tours of the historic property are available to all guests, as well as a fresh breakfast incorporating ingredients from their organic farm.

by Casa Velas Hotel

+1 505 344 9297

www.lospoblanos.com/ info@lospoblanos.com

4803 Rio Grande Boulevard
Northwest, Albuquerque NM

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com