Savoy Bar & Grill

"Modeled After California Wine Country"

Modeled after California wine country establishments, Savoy has the same local owners as the prominent and well-loved Albuquerque restaurant-bars Seasons and Zinc. Savoy is comprised of a large, bright dining room, an outdoor patio, a lounge, a wine tasting room, and a private room for group events. Delicious appetizers include the Grilled Peaches & Arugula or Seared Sea Scallop salads; entrees are mostly steaks and seafood. The wine list is the establishment's key feature, and includes French, Spanish and Italian alongside the extensive selection of Californian. Come on a Tuesday for the bargain "Half Price Featured Wine Night."

The County Line

"Grill/Smokehouse"

Long recognized for serving some of the best barbecued brisket, ribs, chicken, and sausage in New Mexico, if not the entire southwest, this chain restaurant is the perfect stop for anyone in search of sloppy comfort food. Its heightened perch along the base of the Sandia Mountains further adds to its appeal by being one of the nation's only rib joints featuring panoramic views. The all-you-can-eat platter, is the hit of the menu. Kid's portions makes it family friendly.

Corn Maiden

"Authentic Flavors"

The Corn Maiden at Hyatt Regency Tamaya Resort & Spa is named after the symbol of Santa Ana Pueblo. The Sandia mountains act as a beautiful backdrop to the adobe style décor and setting, making The Corn Maiden a perfect place for family or business events. Food at the Corn Maiden is a blend of two cultures, Hispanic and Tamaya traditional food. Combining both, the chefs have created a new regional cuisine with international flavors to represent Santa Ana Pueblo. Fresh and locally available ingredients such as green chillies, enchiladas, and pinon make food look just as great as it tastes!
