

"Best Mexican Restaurants in Albuquerque"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 5 Locations Bookmarked

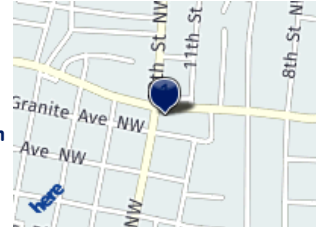

📷 by "Alessandro Alimonti on Unsplash" on Unsplash (CC)

Cocina Azul

"Mexican All-day Eatery"

This all-day New Mexican eatery serves steaming hot meals prepared from owner Frank Barela's award-winning recipes. Discover the scintillating flavors of the traditional red and green chile sauces on freshly made Mexican treats such as enchiladas, Chile Relleno, Carne Adovada and Sopapilla. Succulent meats also feature in some of their specialties, where the richness of steak is combined with tantalizing Latin flavors - expect Steak Taco Plate, the Rib-eye Steak Burrito and Beef Burrito Plate, among others. With warm service and authentic food, Cocina Azul hits the spot when it comes to a hankering for Mexican delights.

📞 +1 505 831 2500

💻 www.cocinaazul.com/

📍 1134 Mountain Road Northwest, Albuquerque NM

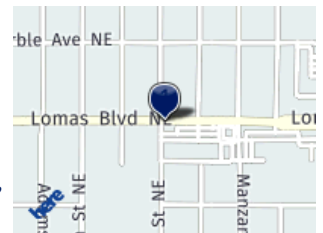

📷 by Public Domain (CC)

Los Cuates

"New Mexican Food"

To reason that this restaurant is only popular because of its budget-happy prices would be a slanderous insult to the kitchen. The menu specializes in authentic New Mexican fare featuring popular choices as chicken tacos, hefty enchiladas, and a Chile Relleno that comes so smothered in cheese that one wonders if perhaps the chef has direct ties with the Wisconsin cheese industry. If the tongue begs for something other than Mexican there is also a decent selection of burgers and sandwiches. Beer and wine is available.

📞 +1 505 255 5079

📍 4901 Lomas Boulevard Northwest, Albuquerque NM

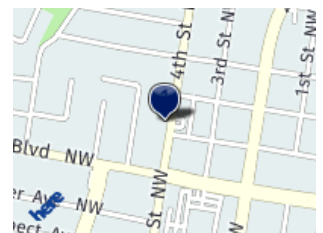

📷 by Jvillarrealr (CC)

Mary & Tito's Cafe

"New Mexico's Best Since 1963"

Quite a bit of hype surrounds this this no-frills Mexican eatery, and regulars swear that the place is well worthy of it. Mary & Tito's have been around in the North Valley neighborhood since 1963, serving authentic New Mexican food to its residents. The food here is vibrant, varied and comes drizzled with a healthy dose of red or green chile, some of the most fabulous kind you will have this side of the world. The sopapillas, tamales, cheese tortillas and the carne adovada are inadvertent tongue-teasers and tummy-pleasers. To finish off, wolf down a slice of decadent Mexican Wedding Cake.

📞 +1 505 344 6266

📍 2711 4th Street Northwest, Albuquerque NM

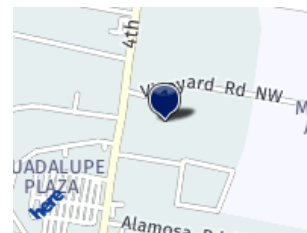

by Public Domain

Sadie's of New Mexico

"Good Salsa & Margaritas"

Albuquerque's premium destination when it comes to serving authentic Mexican food, Sadie's of New Mexico fits the bill with its genuine creations, true to family recipes. This award-winning restaurant lives up to its title by using only the freshest and finest raw material to create dishes that are nothing less than spectacular. Be it burritos, stuffed enchiladas or the simple salsa, this restaurant nails it in terms of flavor every single time. So if you are looking for some authentic Mexican affair, Sadie's of New Mexico is the place to be.

+1 505 345 5339

www.sadiesofnewmexico.com/locations/4th-street/

gilbert@sadiesofnewmexico.com

6230 Fourth Street
Northwest, Los Ranchos De
Albuquerque NM

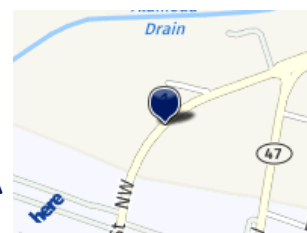

by Amy Jones

El Pinto Restaurant

"Fine New Mexican Cuisine"

Located along the Rio Grande Bosque, El Pinto's shaded patio draws diners from throughout New Mexico. Established in 1962, this dining gem has maintained its reputation for serving authentic New Mexican dishes. A number of tables are situated in private nooks for more private, romantic dining. Award-winning salsa precedes each meal. Generous portions of New Mexican dishes such as carne adovada, chile rellenos, enchiladas, and burritos are offered. As ultimate proof of its glowing reputation it has been visited by President Bush and Mick Jagger (separately, of course).

+1 505 898 1771

www.elpinto.com/

elpinto@elpinto.com

10500 Fourth Street
Northwest, Albuquerque NM

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com

TERMS & CONDITIONS | PRIVACY POLICY | API | CONTACT US | Copyright (C) 2024 CITYSEEKER