Launchpad

"Music in Space"

Step into the Launchpad and take off to the 'universal' world of music. In the background of a space-theme and dark-lit laid-back atmosphere, this hip country bar entertains with an eclectic mix of music played by local musicians and renowned talents. The dance floor invites the vivacious crowd to shake a leg or head-bang to the upbeat punk or the 1000 volt hard rock. While the state-of-art setting amplifies the performances, the full-stocked bar serves you with a premium selection to add to the experience. Hop in late to enjoy the peak of a power-packed night.

The Dirty Bourbon

"A Lively Theme Bar"

If you want to listen to live music and sip on well-crafted cocktails while in Albuquerque, then The Dirty Bourbon is the place you must check out. Located on Montgomery Boulevard, this Country and Western themed bar comes across as a respite from the regular bars/ clubs in the city, offering live entertainment in the form of country music. If the western theme hasn't caught on to you yet, then the mechanical bull at the center of the huge dance floor will definitely get you there. Dance your night away with your friends or relax and sip on the drinks churned out by the bartenders, you are in for a great time here. Call or visit their website for more information.
