Hilton Minneapolis

"Modern Accommodations"

Though this hotel has the look and feel of the Victorian era, every aspect of it is modern. All rooms include voice mail, fax and a second telephone line in the bathroom. You will not have to go far for a good meal, either. The hotel offers the SkyWater restaurant for an evening of casual dining and Barron's Brew for a caffeine fix. Orchestra Hall, Nicollet Mall, and the Minneapolis Convention Center are just a short walk away.

Hyatt Regency Minneapolis

"Regal Accommodations"

Located in the heart of downtown, this is one of the city's posh destinations for those either on business or on leisure, with a bottomless wallet. But with the price comes typical Hyatt luxuries. The hotel is well connected to Minneapolis's skyways that allow one to traverse downtown without ever having to venture outside. It is close to everything including the convention center and the famous Guthrie Theater. Many of the rooms, especially on the upper floors, offer excellent views of the surrounding region.
