Zelo

"Dazzling Decor & Food"

This is upscale dining at its best. From the vaulted ceiling and custom ironwork to the heavy, velvet drapes, Zelo oozes elegance. Opt for one of the curvy, black leather booths situated along the walls. The upscale menu features a variety of pastas, shrimp and beef dishes, as well as gourmet pizzas. Begin with the affettato misto, a colossal appetizer plate loaded with Italian meats and cheeses, raw veggies and bruschetta. If this seems a bit much, try the fried calamari or wood-roasted mussels. The Alaskan halibut is moist and flaky, while the New York strip steak is broiled to perfection. The thin-crust pizza topped with Sicilian sausage is a taste treat. The dessert selection ranges from pistachio-praline cheesecake topped with caramel sauce to a simple dish of strawberry ice cream. The wine and beer list features a fine selection of imported and domestic choices.

Oceanaire Seafood Room

"Fine Seafood Eatery"

This luxurious restaurant in the Hyatt Regency Minneapolis is by far one of the finest seafood eatery in the Twin Cities, and the most expensive. With its red leather booths and cherry wood paneled walls, Oceanaire oozes elegance, 1930s supper club-style. The availability of fish dictates what is offered on a daily basis. Most days, diners have a choice of Chilean sea bass, yellow fin tuna, swordfish steak or Chesapeake Bay-style crab cakes. Side dishes are served à la Carte and are large enough to serve four. Appetizers are served home-style and include grilled calamari, oysters and jumbo shrimp cocktail. For dessert, the flaky-crust Key lime pie and brandy-ignited baked Alaska are without equal. Specialty cocktails include 1950s classics like the Pink Lady and Grasshopper.
