HUB Restaurant & Ice Creamery

"A Plethora of Ice Cream!"

HUB Restaurant and Ice Creamery is one revitalized corner of Tucson which serves classic comfort food and everyone's favorite ICE-CREAM! From Pot-pies to hamburgers and hand-made ice-cream, Hub serves it all. Dessert is never a matter of debate at this eatery with truly sinful choices of Rocky Road, Salted Caramel and Creamy Vanilla Ice-cream. The decor is classically styled with comfortable seating and a long bar brimming with spirits.

Blue Willow

"A Tucson Wholesome Food Institution"

A Tucson institution for 20 years, this bakery and cafe has set the standard for wholesome food with its omelets, quiches and tofu scrambles. Its glory continues to this day due to the staff's dedication to quality ingredients and service. Don't miss their chocolate dessert dish, which never fails to impress clients and reviewers. A great outdoor patio with greenery and fountains provides shade and cool during the hot Tucson summers.

Agustin Kitchen

"Always Good Food & Great Time"

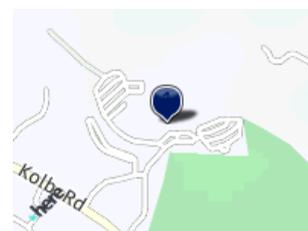

Located at the popular Mercado San Agustin, Agustin Kitchen serves food that is an amalgamation of American and French cuisine. Chef Ryan Clark takes utmost interest in every ingredient that comes into his kitchen with emphasis on fresh produce sourced from local farms. Every season brings novelty for patrons making reinvention a part of the restaurant's culinary vision. For lunch, Pork Loaf Sandwich, Wagyu Burger, Beet Gnocchi and Baked Oysters deserve the attention of your palate. Brunch is served on weekends. Agustin Kitchen's cocktail menu is very popular among patrons, and cocktails like the Red-Light District, Great Escape and Peel Slowly taste as dramatic as they sound.

Flying V Bar & Grill

"Fine Dining at Loews Ventana"

Flying V Bar & Grill at the Loews Ventana Canyon Resort serves unparalleled Southwestern American cuisine. Start with a Flying V Chopped Salad then for your main course, try The Flying Saucer platter. It's a vegetarian platter that includes vegetable enchiladas and fried corn tortillas. A Hibiscus Cheesecake is an enormous dessert or go for The Flying V Chocolate Nacho Bar. They have a list of signature drinks as well which the polite waiting staff would be more than happy to suggest.
