

"Best Pubs in Tucson"

Created by: Cityseeker

 5 Locations Bookmarked

 by Taylor Harding on Unsplash

Red Garter Saloon

"The Happening Bar"

This is where the Rocky Horror Picture Show freaks liquor up on Saturday nights, among other theatergoers at the neighboring Loft Cinema. During the day, it is usually a local yokel joint. It's spacious, with typically southwestern wooden paneling, a jukebox, a few old video arcade games, torn leather booths and a few tables in the center of the room. A variety of burgers and sandwiches are available: bacon cheeseburgers, jalapeno burgers, mushroom swiss burgers, barbecue beef sandwiches and chicken melts.

 +1 520 325 0483

 redgartertucson.com/

 3143 East Speedway Boulevard, Speedway and Country Club, Tucson AZ

 by Alexander Dinamarca on Unsplash

Barrio Brewing Co.

"Great Beers"

Barrio Brewing Co. offers a wide variety of fresh microbrews. They have a dozen of their own Barrio Brewing microbrews on tap, including their very easy-to-drink Barrio Blonde, which has a light malt flavor. If you want some food to go along with your beer, then you are in luck. Barrio Brewing Co. features a food menu decked with options like burgers and selections of very tasty Mexican bites, including tacos and quesadillas.

 +1 520 791 2739

 barriobrewing.com/

 800 East 16th Street, Tucson AZ

 by Suea Sivilaisith on Unsplash

Bison Witches

"Popular Spot for Happy Hour"

This place is one of the favorite hangouts for University of Arizona coeds and others, as it serves the famous Bison Witches Bloody Mary, a drink consumed in large quantities by droves of hungover college students on Sundays. That's part of the Fourth Avenue tradition. Another reason to visit this bar is speedy service, plus the legendary overstuffed deli sandwiches. It's not easy to find a seat during lunch hour, and even more difficult during Happy Hour, when skilled bartenders serve up a good selection of vodkas, tequilas and bourbons. So be prepared to wait a little for the Great Happy Hour Special, but be assured it'll be worth it. This place opens daily at 11am.

 +1 520 740 1541

 www.bisonwitches.com/  Bison326@aol.com

 326 North Fourth Avenue, Tucson AZ

Tap & Bottle

"Marvelous Microbrews"

There is no need to travel all around the globe to try a variety of microbrews and craft beers when you have the Tap & Bottle. This bar features at least twenty beers on tap, and the selection is constantly rotating. In addition to the beers, there are six wines available by the glass. No matter what you order, the atmosphere at Tap & Bottle is very friendly and welcoming, meaning you just might make some new friends here as well.

+1 520 344 8999

www.thetapandbottle.com/

403 North 6th Avenue, Tucson AZ

by Armando Ascorve Morales
on Unsplash ©

Union Public House

"Adored City Pub"

Fashioned after an old-town public house, the Union Public House is just that. Replete with all the accouterments that go into making a pub, except with a more modern approach, this family-friendly pub serves local brews and whiskey, alongside delicious pub-grub that you can't keep your hands off. To add to that, there are TV screens for when your favorite game is on. Happy hours continue late into the night, when locals still trickle in for some of their famous French Dip Sliders and Cabbage Wraps. Mornings bring hearty brunches, while an alfresco dining area lets you sit in the morning sun mull over the day to come.

+1 520 329 8575

www.uniontucson.com/

info@uniontucson.com

4340 North Campbell Avenue, St Phillips Plaza, Suite 103, Tucson AZ

JOIN US AT:
cityseeker.com