The Lemp Mansion

"Lemp's Hauntingly Historic B&B"

This 1860s bed and breakfast offers an inviting alternative, should you desire a change from the traditional hotel stay. It offers guests comfortable accommodations while also giving them a taste of the Lemp family's haunting history. Each room has a tale of its own, making this an exciting, if also eerie, place to stay. The Lemp family's original furnishings remain in the mansion today. If you are looking for some real excitement choose to stay on a Friday or Saturday night and participate in the Murder Mystery Dinner Theater.

Seven Gables Inn

"Antique European Hotel"

The Seven Gables Inn has a central location in Clayton near wonderful restaurants, shops, businesses and two of St. Louis' largest parks, Forest Park and Shaw Park. The rooms have an antique European design with garden views and come furnished with sofas, coffee tables, radios and cable TV. Personal service and old-world charm make this a special place to stay. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the hotel also has a restaurant and bar. There are three types of suites: mini, presidential, and honeymoon.
