The Billesley Manor Hotel

"Magnificent 16th Century Manor House"

Set in 11 acres of parkland, Billesley Manor is a 16th century Elizabethan manor house. Located just 3 miles from Shakespeare's Stratford-upon-Avon, this historic property features an 11th century church and an ornate topiary garden, which was planted 100 years ago to replicate a chess board. Bedrooms combine traditional character with 21st century luxuries, options include a variety within the manor house or cedar barns. The Stuart Restaurant and Great Hall offers dinner set-up with oak panelling and original fireplaces. The Spa has everything needed to unwind and keep fit, relax in the beauty rooms and guests can take advantage of the extensive range of Decleor treatments on offer. The Billesley Manor Hotel is where Shakespeare wrote 'As You Like It'. Historians also believe the All Saints Church in the grounds is where Shakespeare married his wife, Anne Hathaway.
