Set in 150 acres of beautiful parkland, this challenging 6400 yard par 72 course will test all golfers. The course was designed by the celebrated J H Taylor, five times Open Champion, who said in his original report that the subsoil was ideal and that "you can play 365 days a year in your slippers!" Samuel Ryder - donor of the famous Ryder Cup, who was captain of the club in 1929/30 officially opened the present course in April 1928. Today the club enjoys a membership of over 500 golf devotees for whom it provides an impressive clubhouse, bar, shop, full range of refreshments and equipment hire.
