Daisy Chain

"Children's Boutique Plus Play"

This small shop provides a high quality, the alternative range of children's clothing without you having to pay top-designer prices. Daisy Chain caters to newborn babies up to children of primary school age and is a great place for a special outfit or for something a little out of the ordinary. This is also a great shop for some innovative educational toys and gifts, as well as wooden toys, soft toys galore, mobiles, wall hangings and even a battery-operated hobbyhorse.

St. Patrick's of Broadway Ltd

"Collector's Feast"

This large shop is set in a delightful ancient house. While you will find items for children at pocket-change prices here, the main attraction comes from the small items aimed at the serious collector. These include china, Beatrix Potter figures, vases, paperweights and Bohemia Glass. Walk around displays as diverse as dollhouse furniture, collector cars, ceramic boxes and watches before you buy. Note that some of the most well-known names here include Burago, Lilliput Lane and West Alley.
