Harry's Bar & Burger

"Burgers in College Hill"

Harry's Bar & Burger is the spot to go when you're looking for craft beer and superb burgers in College Hill. All of the patties are made from certified Hereford beef and the servings come in two mini-sliders. The kitchen also has sandwiches, wings, hot dogs and their Must Fries' are exactly that. As for cold refreshment, Harry's has a smorgasbord of tasty beers, many on tap change daily and it's definitely a place to experiment because there is nary a trace of domestic options like Budweiser, Coors, etc. Another added benefit is that the shop sells its food and drink at college prices.

Ivy Tavern

"Variety is the Spice"

Here at this little restaurant on Hope Street, the menu is as eclectic as it can possibly be, with dishes that range from fish & chips to Korean-style bimbimbap, the kitchen is more than creative. Most of the menu items are sandwiches, in which there are vegan, chicken, pork, turkey and fish options. The Korean influence also makes another appearance with a Bulgogi steak sandwich on the menu. This sliced, soy-marinated masterpiece served on a garlic Bulkie roll is one of the best versions of this sandwich in the entire state of Rhode Island.

The Abbey

"Beer & Burger Shrine"

As far as the selection of craft beer goes, The Abbey manages to outdo every pub in town with its list of 92 different varieties. In addition to a massive selection of suds, the Abbey also has an amazing array of burgers, pizza and sandwiches alongside different entrees like meatloaf and pasta. Right below each menu item, there is a beer recommendation to pair your plate. A nice touch, just in case you are perplexed as what to choose when you see the beer list!
