Ashton Hotel

"Luxury Hotel in 1915 Historic Building"

The Ashton Hotel was once a home of the Fort Worth Club, it has now been restored with an Italian facade and wrought iron balconies. The 39 rooms, coupled with amenities, such as a contemporary restaurant, piano bar and 24-hour concierge services, make this hotel a hit with traveling executives. Each room brims with history and is complete with comfortable furnishings. The small number of guest rooms assure a high level of customer service. For dining and entertainment, the Sundance Square entertainment district and the Fort Worth Stockyards are minutes away.

Courtyard Fort Worth Downtown/Blackstone

"Modern Luxury Hotel"

This place is more than just a familiar chain hotel. In 1998, Marriott acquired and remodeled the famous Blackstone Hotel, one of Fort Worth's great historic buildings. The original hotel was a 22-story Art Deco skyscraper. While the original interior was gutted, the terra cotta exterior has been kept almost entirely intact. This historic hotel has housed such luminaries as Richard Nixon, John Wayne and Elvis Presley. The hotel retains all the practical luxuries expected by the contemporary business traveler. While there are six other Courtyard by Marriott locations in the Metroplex, only the Blackstone is unique in its history and decoration.
