Zoo Lake

"Open Space for Concerts"

Probably the most frequented open-space area in the suburbs of Johannesburg, Zoo Lake has a restaurant, paddle-boat facilities as well as waterfowl in abundance. The restaurant is housed within buildings at the heart of the property and a bowling club lies to the right. Concerts are often hosted here and an annual, 'Jazz at the Park' concert is becoming a recognized event. 'Artists under the Sun' is a regular affair providing artists an opportunity to showcase their works by the lakeside. Weekends are always hectic and everyone and their dog seems to find some amusement there. No entrance fee. Dogs on leashes only. Plenty of parking.

Florida Lake

"Nature at its Best"

Forming an important part of a soon-to-be extensive green belt area running from the west of Johannesburg all the way to the East Rand, Florida Lake is a wonderful haven of tranquility close to main roads that lead straight to the heart of the city. An interesting assortment of ducks waddle about, and the lake is frequented by numerous other bird species. Access is unrestricted and free but barbecuing facilities need to be booked, especially on weekends. A lovely place to picnic or simply stroll and enjoy the water's presence.

Victoria Lake

"Lake and Park Area"

Victoria Lake is frequented not only by water sport fanatics, but also the general public who come to enjoy the rolling lawns. Kids have a whale of a time in the playground and the lake area provides an essential green lung close to the heart of Germiston. Situated close to the Rondebult Bird Sanctuary as well as inner-city museums and art centers, the lake provides an opportunity to picnic and let the children run to their hearts' content. There is no entrance fee and secure parking is available.
