Johannesburg Art Gallery

"Art in the Park"

Nestled within Joubert Park is the Johannesburg Art Gallery, which is regarded as one of Johannesburg's core art galleries. Its collection includes both the works of South African as well as international artists. You can easily find Rodin, Picasso, and Henry Moore there as well as South African artists such as Sekoto, Batisse and Pierneef. Thanks to the aforementioned feature, the Johannesburg Art Gallery is regarded as one of the African continent's largest gallery, surpassing Cape Town's Iziko South African National Gallery. The artifacts here succeeds in attracting both devoted art lovers and the city's youth.
