Jolleys Boathouse

"Award Winning Cuisine"

A host of awards and a lovely setting on the bank of River Torrens, make this restaurant a most attractive proposition for a long lunch or sunset dinner. With wood floors, white linen and large windows, Jolleys exudes class. The superb modern Australian menu changes seasonally although duck dishes remain popular. The desserts are luscious and an excellent wine list promotes South Australian wines, including reserves.

The Red Ochre

"Bush Tucker Best"

Red Ochre has long been recognized for its innovative treatment of native produce and has been one of the prime restaurants to experiment with bush herbs and fruits. The food here is fresh and the creations are contemporary, with a unique approach to flavoring and seasoning. If you are lucky the succulent and tender Wagyu beef will be on the menu, or perhaps the sweet and sought-after freshwater marron. The venue is a delight, overlooking Torrens Lake.

Scenic Restaurant

"Panoramic Views"

Perched atop a hillside in a tree-lined corner of the beautiful Adelaide hills, Scenic Restaurant is one of those incredibly cozy places where you feel you could stay all day. The rustic balcony offers panoramic views over Adelaide on fine days and a thick blanket of fog in winter. Choose from traditional pub fare, from steaks and pasta to fish. Highlights include kangaroo back strap fillet and King George whiting with Coopers beer batter. A cleansing Coopers Ale, South Australia's local brew, is the perfect way to accompany the meal. Check website for opening hours.
