Africola

"Adelaide's South African Kitchen"

Africola, situated in the East Terrace precinct of Adelaide, is one place where you can experience various different flavors of the South African cuisine. The names of the dishes may seem weird but they taste great. The rare barbecued beef, the chicken piri piri and the vegetable dishes are the highlights. The wine collection and other drinks are a delight. Although there may be an overload of seafood but the catch is fresh and it does wonders to your taste-buds. The weirdly wonderful African menu will make you want to come back again!
