Udaberri

"Tapas and Dancing"

Udaberri is a cozy restaurant offering Tapas menus. It is ideal for weekend dinners and parties where one can hang out with friends. Enjoy the foot-tapping music of the DJs as you partake of the small plates platters. There is plenty of wine as well that one can savor with the food. The restaurant is quite popular with locals and tends to get crowded easily.

The Apothecary 1878

"Classic 1878 Style"

The best way to describe this wine bar would be: sophistication meets old world charm. The different types of champagne and extensive cheese platter will ensure that you come back for more. The Apothecary is also a stop for wine tastings, presentations, Christmas dinners, seminars and other such get-togethers. So dress up, step on the velvet carpet and feel like royalty.

Cliché Exhibition

"French Culinary Treat"

Part of a contemporary gallery, Cliché Exhibition offers a taste of exotic French food alongwith an exhibition of the creative talents of local artists in Adelaide. The restaurant is classy and offers a host of cocktails and drinks to go with the food. Choose the signature Duck Confit or Filet de Boeuf for a satisfying meal. The desserts consist of crepes Suzette and Fromage. The restaurant also hosts DJ nights on some days.

Mestizo Cocina Peruana

"Peruvian Highlights"

Mestizo Cocina Peruana is a traditional Peruvian restaurant that offers authentic flavors to diners. Try the various dishes on the menu and you would be transported to a state of Latin bliss. Combining seasonal ingredients with traditional spices, the talented chefs create a rich gustatory experience for the guests. The highlights of the menu include the Pulpo al Olivo or octopus served with olives, and the Anticuchos or beef skewers. The prices are affordable.
