Clever Little Tailor

"Bar Charm"

An ideal place for a relaxed drink after an exhausting day in the city, the Clever Little Tailor bar is almost always brimming with people looking for a good stress buster. Exposed brick walls and wood themed interiors coupled with dim lighting give it the ambiance of a cozy, classic bar that is always filled with excitement. Once done taking in the impressive interiors, sit with your friends at the bar on the lower level or make your way upstairs to the balcony, in a more intimate environment while you sip on one of the fine drinks available here.

Casablaba

"Multicultural Experience"

Casablaba can be classified as one of the most multicultural bars in the city. The interiors take inspiration from the faraway lands of Morocco, Bali, Turkey and Cambodia, and the result is a visual treat. The menu is an eclectic mix of a wide variety of dishes, among which the steamed mussels with chorizo and quinoa and salt-and-pepper quail are particularly delicious. You can groove to the live music or just sit back and enjoy the various performances that form such an important part of the Casablaba experience. For a truly multicultural experience, Casablaba is the place to visit.

Le Carpe Diem

"Breakfast Special"

A wonderful creperie in Central Adelaide, Le Carpe Diem has a typical French bistro charm. There is a casual ambiance with a chic appeal. The crepes are gluten-free and the dough is devoid of eggs as well, much to the happiness of vegetarians. Try the sweet crepes with nuts, nutella and syrups or the savory ones filled with chicken, cheese and eggs. A special selection for children is also available.

Lawash Bakery

"Lebanese Highlights"

Located in Thebarton, Lawash Bakery is a typical Lebanese outlet that is best known for its Afghani Kebabs. The secret to the great taste of the kebabs lies in the succulent meat and the traditional sauces that are lovingly prepared onsite. Try the Shami Kebab or the Alfam Kebab and savor the deliciousness of the minced meat alongwith Bolani Bread. Coffee and soda are also served here.
