Adelaide Oval

"The Prettiest Ground of All"

Dominating the parkland between Torrens Lake and St. Peter's Cathedral lies the Adelaide Oval, often lauded as one of the most scenic cricket grounds in the world. The first test match played here was between Australia and England in 1884. Since that time, the ground has been used for other sports such as rugby and Australian football. The distinctive Victor Richardson and Clarrie Grimmett gates add special character to the cricket ground, while the splendid old scoreboard dates back to Edwardian times. Though it is widely regarded as a sacred ground for cricket, Adelaide Oval has also hosted big-ticket concerts, where artists like Ed Sheeran, Adele and Foo Fighters have performed in the past.

Norwood Oval

"Grand Sports Venue"

One of the major sporting venues in the city, Norwood Oval is a versatile stadium, and is used to host a number of different sporting events. Largely used for Australian Rules Football, the stadium is the official home of the Norwood Football Club and Adelaide Crows. This 22,000 seat arena turns into a site of pure exhilaration when the local favorites take the pitch, with people travelling from far and wide to support their favorites. Equipped with natural grass playing surface, light towers, concessions stands and tier-seating, the stadium offers a remarkable playing and viewing experience.
