National Wine Centre of Australia

"Fine Wines"

The National Wine Centre of Australia is an architectural fantasy due to its oak barrel shape and design and the unique use of natural light, wood and metal. Situated on the periphery of the Botanical Gardens, this place is a wine lovers paradise. Take a tour of the entire complex and head to the cafe serving the finest wines and delicious meals. The Centre can be booked for events like conferences, wedding, and other social and corporate events. There is also an open terrace at the National Wine Centre where you can get a clear view of the Botanical Gardens and the Vineyard. Give your tasting buds a treat with some of the finest wines on display at the exhibition.
