Mostly Books

"The Joys of Reading"

Serene and unhurried, with free tea and coffee, soft classical music and lounges to relax in: this is a refreshing contrast to the bustling, crowded city bookshops. Located at Mitcham Square Shopping Complex, it is a store that welcomes browsing and actually invites you to lose yourself in a book for a while. In addition to all of the standard sections, there is an excellent children's section, featuring superbly written and illustrated picture-books that make parents and children alike clamor for a bedtime story.
