Bricktown Brewery

"Bricktown Hot Spot"

In the heart of Bricktown, this two-story restaurant and bar is a hot spot for the young, single after-work crowd. Upstairs you will find a large, very casual bar area where you can enjoy live music on Fridays and Saturdays. Downstairs is a casual restaurant and lounge area, which is a little more family-friendly. The chefs cook up quite a variety here, including pork, chicken, steak, fish, sandwiches and burgers. The steaks are the most popular items on the menu. In addition to dinner, the bar has a great lunch menu with many of the same items, only at a better price.

JJ's Alley

"Pub Next Door"

This hole in the wall on East Sheridan is a great live entertainment venue in addition to being an inviting and relaxed bar. Spread over two levels, get acquainted with local patrons over a Wii game or head-bang to the tunes of some of America's most talented bands, featured seven nights a week. There are no cover charges and the extensive drink list is reasonably priced. Indulge in what most say is the town's best pizza, sold by the slice. The friendly service and contagious, high-spirited vibe will have you coming back for more.

"Live Music & Dining"

Looking for great food and live music? Go no further. This hot spot has been offering both since 1976. It does not have music every night, so call ahead, but it gets some great acts like Red Hot Chili Peppers. Enjoy a sandwich or salad, or just munch of some of the appetizers. This trendy Nichols Hills restaurant and bar is perfect for dinner or a fun night out. Expect a cover charge if there is entertainment. Enjoy Happy Hour from 4p-7p Monday through Friday with domestic longnecks on special and a free buffet.
