Langston's Western Wear

"Western Wear in Stockyard City"

Located in Stockyard City, this western wear store has been in business since 1913, making it the oldest in Oklahoma City. If you are in the market for boots, the friendly staff will help you choose from 15,000 pairs. Nobody sells more Levi's or Wrangler's in the Southwest. Whether you are looking for a belt for your two-year-old or a hat for your dad, this shop carries it all, with western clothing for men, women and children. You will also find a small selection of Stockyard City souvenirs.

Banana Republic

"Smart and Sassy"

When it comes to fashion, Banana Republic is a trusted name for sure—it's a brand that styles you perfect. While women can revel in the trove of vibrant petites, sexy skirts and beautiful party dresses, men can fill their wardrobes with smart chinos, khaki suits, trendy jackets and more. There's a cool collection of nifty footwear too. So, you don't have to go elsewhere looking for that perfect match; Banana serves that purpose well. This brand is all about great apparel, good accessories, nice footwear and chic handbags.

Dillard's

"Fashion and Home Goods"

Located in the Penn Square Mall, this famous store is a fine example of what a national department store can be when it keeps a happy balance between fashion and price. Similar to Macy's and Nordstrom's, the store stocks items in every major department, including a well-loved bedroom furniture and linen department and exhaustive kitchenware and accessory departments. Fashions for men, women and kids are also available, along with an exemplary make-up counter and convenient bridal registry.

Tener's Western Outfitters

"Get the Western Look"

Oklahoma is frontier country. Shop at Tener's, and you can look like you just rode in from the prairie. For 70 years, the store has dressed the southwest in quality, rugged gear. From rustic and traditional to slick and contemporary, this city landmark has a wide selection of name-brand clothing, hats and accessories. It is okay if Wranglers are not your style; everyone can appreciate the style a fine pair of cowboy boots gives. Stop by and pick up some country duds that suit your fancy.
