

"Best Markets in Oklahoma City"

Created by: Cityseeker

 3 Locations Bookmarked

 by meineresterampe

 +1 405 632 7956

Old Paris Flea Market

"Indoor & Outdoor Market"

Looking for bargains? With more than 300 dealers, this south side flea market is bound to have something you cannot live without, at a price you will not want to pass up. You will see both new and old items; gift items, apparel, antiques and a whole bunch more. The market has been around since the late 1970s, so the owners really know what they are doing in this business—they have almost made it an art form.

 1111 South Eastern Avenue, Oklahoma City OK

 by MIH83

 +1 405 947 4421

OSU-OKC Farmers Market

"Not Only For Farmers"

Open all year long, 'OSU-OKC Farmers Market', has some of the freshest produce, dairy, eggs, meats, nuts, baked items and processed foods. The place also has some Oklahoma-grown plant materials, orchids, fresh cut flowers and a variety of handmade skin care and craft items. Besides these, for all organic food lovers, do come here and buy your stuff.

 www.osuokc.edu/farmersmarket/about.asp

 400 North Portland Avenue, Oklahoma State University—Oklahoma City, Oklahoma City OK

 by See-ming Lee

 +1 405 843 3033

Akins Natural Foods Market

"Vitamins & Health Foods"

If your idea of a vegetable is the French fries in your super sized fast food order, then maybe this is not the shop for you. On the other hand, maybe it is just what you need. For 33 years, this large store at 63rd and May has been offering vitamins, herbs, healthy foods and organic produce to its health-conscious customers. The friendly staff is very knowledgeable about the products they sell, and they can help you find just what you are looking for, or help you if you have no idea what you are looking for.

 www.akers.com/

 2924 Northwest 63rd Street, Mayfair Shopping Center, Oklahoma City OK

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com