Aqui Cal-Mex

"Eclectic Variety"

You are immediately soaked into the scene upon entering this charming eatery in Willow Glen. The chefs at Aqui Cal-Mex concoct a wonderfully varied fusion of Californian and Mexican cuisines that defies categorization. A little Asian influence is thrown in for even more variety. The daily specials are always magnificent. You can eat inside the Southwestern-styled dining room, where it is always packed, or you can lounge seated across the patio tables. For the more adventurous, 40 kinds of tequila are offered in the Saddle Bar, which also has its own menu. Do not miss the specialty margaritas and martinis at the bar.

Straits

"Singapore in San Jose"

Straits has a long tradition of excellent Singaporean cuisine. Having developed a reputation with their restaurants in Palo Alto and San Francisco, Straits Cafe's latest offering in Santana Row is a further extension of this popular brand. The atmosphere is bustling with an attentive and efficient wait-staff. The ambiance with its authentic decor is like a trip to Singapore but without the jet lag! Their many fish, beef and vegetable entrees provide a delectable mix and desserts like the Mango Mousse or Lava Cake are perfect conclusions to a wonderful meal. Live jazz Thursday nights beginning at 9. DJ Sounds Friday and Saturday nights.
