Satori Tea Company

"British & Artisanal Teas"

A unique amalgamation of traditional a tea room and a boutique tea shop, Satori Tea Company is exceedingly popular for its afternoon teas. Located in central San Jose on San Pedro Street, Satori offers a range of aromatic artisanal teas that includes oolong, green, herbal, white and black teas. Flavors like Vanilla-Hazelnut Oolong, Coconut Ginger Snap, Silver Needle (Yinzhen), Peony and Wild Rose, among many others, are hard to find and truly inspired. Their noteworthy rendition of traditional, British afternoon tea comes with a selection of scrumptious finger foods and baked goodies like teacakes, scones, petite fours and such. All in all, Satori Tea Co. makes for a splendid experience.

Caffe Frascati

"Italian Cafe in Downtown San Jose"

A wonderful cafe with a distinct European feel, Caffe Frascati enjoys an enviable location, almost next door to California Theatre. The casual Italian establishment is quite famous for its cappuccinos and espressos. However, those aren't the only things on offer - the menu features several Italian beers and wines as well. Noteworthy among this list is the Frascati house wine. For noshing, there are many small plates, breakfast and lunch items - choose from a range of paninis, croissants, bagels and baguettes, or dig into their famous desserts and pastries, the tiramisu comes highly recommended. If this isn't enough, Caffe Frascati plays host to many interesting and awesome live events - music performances, open mic nights and such.
