Bertha's Diner

"Retro Diner in North Park"

A 1950's style vintage diner located in the North Park locality of Buffalo, Bertha's Diner is a favorite among localities and tourists alike. This small yet cozy diner has a warm and casual ambiance with a stylish mural adorning the back wall that goes perfectly with the decor and theme of the restaurant. The light fixtures fixed and mounted on walls and the ceiling throughout the diner are original. This diner specializes in breakfast and brunch with the menu featuring bagels, omelets, pancakes, and French Toast. The lunch menu includes Rattle and Roll (cheeseburger, fries and milkshake combo), Elvis (just a cheeseburger) and Buddy Holly (deep-fried chicken fingers on a Kaiser roll). Other popular items on the menu include club sandwich, Italian sausage, and fried bologna.

Franks Grill

"A Casual Neighborhood Grill"

This restaurant was originally opened in 1958 by Italian immigrant Frank Iodice, and the current owner has been operating it since 1993. Restaurant specialties include beef on weck and a Friday fish fry. Appetizers include homemade soups and frank's steak salad (New York strip served on a bed of greens topped with Gorgonzola cheese). Finger foods include wings, stuffed hot peppers and spinach bread. In addition to their notable beef on weck, they serve a variety of sandwiches, including burgers, grilled cheese, marinated chicken, and even a fried bologna steak with onions. Pizzas include traditional pizzas, along with specialty pizzas, like Frank's classic white pizza, ranch chicken pizza, pesto chicken pizza, and Frank's spicy white pizza. - Christine A. Smyczynski
