Sofra

"Turkish Delights"

The brainchild of Yuksel Gultekin, Sofra is a restaurant serving authentic as well as contemporary Turkish cuisine from regions all over Turkey. Set in a welcoming space with paintings, sculptures, tables with eye-shaped amulets and bright lighting flooding the interiors, the restaurant instantly makes you forget you are still in the States. The food offerings are creative, clearly influenced by the chef's heritage as well as his travel all over the globe. The delectable dishes are prepared from locally-sourced ingredients with each delicacy made from scratch ensuring freshness and quality. The chef doesn't hesitate to experiment with the presentation of the dishes, transforming each food item into a little piece of art. Complement the savory meals with a wine from the Mediterranean. They also have on offer cocktails and beers apart from the wines. If you are looking for a wonderful dining experience, head to the multiple award-winning Sofra and get ready to go on a culinary voyage through Turkey.

Koutouki Taverna

"Greek & Mediterranean Classics"

A Grecian blue facade along with Mediterranean whitewashed walls gives away the specialty of this atmospheric restaurant on 124 Street. Serving a splendid spread of authentic Mediterranean and Greek cuisine, Koutouki Taverna is perfect for a lively dinner experience. As you dip your soft Pita Bread into olive oil-drizzled hummus, the restaurant puts up a show replete with traditional Zorba-inspired dancing, belly dancing, and more. Meze or sharing platters are available for large groups, while the house wines couple excellently well with the rest of the menu. Most dishes are served with a healthy dollop of special Greek salad.
