The Westin Kansas City Hotel

"Beautiful & Elegant"

A five-story waterfall, two on-site restaurants and a prime location make this an ideal place for business or leisure. Situated in the middle of Crown Center, The Westin Kansas City Hotel is also close to a number of tourist attractions. It is also close to the popular landmarks of Westport and the Country Club Plaza. The hotel offers excellent accommodation facilities with their luxuriously decorated rooms and suites, all featuring modern comforts. The hotel's on-site restaurant serves delectable meals that guests can enjoy after a touristy day out. The hotel also doubles up as an excellent venue for events and corporate meetings. The Westin keeps children in mind with its signature 'Kids Club', a special summer program offering magic shows and other fun and games on Saturdays.

Southmoreland on the Plaza

"Cozy, Elegant B&B"

This 1913 colonial inn is the place for those wanting elegant touches and hotel amenities without the hotel scene. Midwest Travel Writers named it "an exceptional travel experience." Sporting a brick courtyard, carriage house and treetop decks, the inn's 12 rooms are each named after KC celebrities. Complimentary afternoon wine and hors d'oeuvres await guests upon arrival, and a gourmet breakfast completes the package. The nearby Country Club Plaza offers shops and restaurants, and guests can enjoy fitness facilities at a nearby athletic club.

Raphael Hotel

"One of the Finest in the World"

It is no wonder that Conde Nast Magazine voted this one of the top 500 hotels in the world. Located near the Country Club Plaza along Brush Creek, this nine-story hotel permeates elegance. Built in 1927 as an apartment building, this splendid structure was transformed into a hotel in 1975. Today, guests can enjoy spacious rooms and fine dining during their stay. Two prints by the artist Raphael are proudly displayed in the lobby, offering travelers a touch of the art and flair of Old Europe.
