Westport Flea Market Bar & Grill

"Burgerama"

Winning accolades for its burgers is the Westport Flea Market Bar & Grill. Serving the best burgers in Kansas City, Westport's burgers come replete with bacon, cheese and 2 pounds (0.90 kilograms) of fries. This eatery has been flipping burgers for more than 30 years now, without batting an eyelid. Besides burgers, they have taken it upon themselves to make sure you have an epic time while you are here. Westport's does Monday steak nights, karaoke, trivia, movies, video games and more. Wash down your burger with any of their 44 cold and delicious beers and you are all set for the evening.

Side Pockets

"Hipsters' Hangout"

Owned and operated by Keith Robinson, Side Pockets is a popular local sports bar that was established in 1993. The bar has become one of the favorite hangouts for locals and tourists alike. The bar has a casual and lively ambiance. Come in with your friends to cheer for your home team, even as you binge on succulent burgers and delicious wings. Guzzle down your favorite concoction or order for a chilled glass of beer. Pool games and dart boards are available for play.

Sonic Drive-In

"Something for Everyone"

As its name suggests, Sonic Drive-In is a drive-in fast food restaurant that serves delicious burgers and hot dogs. Each burger is perfectly cooked and seasoned well. The hot dogs are flavorsome as well. There is a special menu for breakfast, feature classics like burritos and toasters. Wash down your meal with a slush or a thick shake. Little ones get to pick their favorites from a kids menu.

Chick-Fil-A

"Chicken All the Way"

Owned and operated by Brandon Jackley, this Chick-Fil-A outlet is on par with its counterparts when it comes to quality and service. Since its inception in November 2011, the restaurant has been serving succulent burgers, salads, wraps, and delicious sides. There is a fine fare for the little ones as well. If you are in a hurry, pick up your burgers from their drive thru. The restaurant has a play area to keep your younger ones busy.
