Brave New Restaurant

"The best of brave"

Having trained at the St. Francis in San Francisco and the Capital Hotel in Little Rock, chef and owner Peter Brave has created a popular niche with his exquisite cuisine and casual atmosphere. For starters try the goat cheese mouse, or you might prefer the large gulf shrimp marinated with sliced red onion, dill and vinegar. For dinner, try the pine nut crusted salmon filet sautéed and topped with pesto.

Arthur's Prime Steakhouse

"Fine Dining Steakhouse"

Arthur's Prime Steakhouse is a great restaurant in the neighborhood. The atmosphere here is quiet, dim lit and a place perfect for fine dining. The staff and service here is extremely friendly and polite. Their food is much appreciated by the patrons. You may want to try mainly the steaks, lamb chops, rare ahi tuna, Chicago bone-in rib eye, soups and salads. Make sure you leave some space for the mouthwatering desserts. Accompany your delicious steaks with a drink of your choice from the extensive bar. They also incorporate private events and catering services for special occasions.
