Dugan's Pub

"Upscale Irish Pub"

Lifelong dream of owner Don Dugan, Dugan's Pub has quickly become a local favorite. Raising the bar on the usual pub-grub, Dugan's cuisine is made from scratch, using fresh, local ingredients. Expect to find traditional pub fare like soups, salads, appetizers, sandwiches and burgers. An unexpected find is there Irish portion of the menu, which features bangers and mash, Guinness chicken and of course the ubiquitous corned beef hash. The decor lends a cozy air to the bright and open space with dark wood furnishings, stained glass accents, intimate booths and even a double sided fireplace.

The White Water Tavern

"Little Rock's Eccentric Gem"

Eccentricity and wild nights come alive here at one of Little Rock's liveliest bars. A step into the White Water Tavern reveals a plethora of outlandish décor, which includes the likes of a taxidermied beaver and the painting of a nude matador. The bar's colorful history, such as playing host to Bill Clinton and witnessing greats like Levon Helm and Billy Bragg playing live, add to its peculiarity. Today, the bar's allure as the best venue for live music continues, with the impressive selection of spirits and delectable bar food only adding to it.
