Mount Plaisir Estate Hotel and Spa

"Caribbean Paradise in Northern Mountain Range"

In Trinidad's northern mountain range, the resort is a small oasis amidst a Caribbean paradise. The suites all look out on the Caribbean Sea, adjacent to the rain forest. Each unit accommodates four to six persons and the furnishings were specially detailed by local craftsmen. At the Spa, take advantage of the natural treatments which are known to pamper even the most uptight guest. Within minutes from your guest room you can step onto the sandy beach of Grande Riviere and head in either direction to the mouths of the two rivers that border the hotel. The hotel staff can organize expeditions to the rainforest, in addition to other ecological tours. Canoe along the Grande Riviere River. Enjoy the region's largest variety of birds in all Trinidad. The resort's dining facility specializes in seafood and features the finest local ingredients, some grown right on the estate.

Maracas Bay Hotel

"Spectacular view of Maracas Beach"

This is Trinidad's only beach hotel to command a view of the island's premier beach on the north coast. Maracas Bay is a sheltered white sand crescent that is a popular weekend playground for residents. The Bay is 35 minutes from Port-of-Spain-the scenic mountain route takes you through tropical rain forests and offer breathtaking views of the ocean. At Maracas Bay Hotel, you'll enjoy the best of both worlds, the sea on your doorstep and the forest at your back. Meals are simple but hearty Caribbean fare. A fishing village nearby supplies fresh fish daily. Each room opens to the ocean with a private balcony, two queen-sized beds, remote controlled air-conditioning, private shower and bath with hot and cold water. There are 32 rooms on two floors, which are set in a landscaped tropical garden.

Carnetta's House & Inn

"Ideally Located Near the Capital"

Get the best of both worlds at Carnetta's House and Inn. If you're strictly into relaxation, Carnetta's is located in the ideal spot in Maraval, one of Port-of-Spain's suburbs. Described as the ecotourist's haven, the inn is minutes away from the Maraval River and so much of the flora and fauna which make the area so popular. Carnetta's is also quite close to the popular St Andrew's Golf Course. On the other hand, if the hustle and bustle of the city is what you crave, Carnetta's is just a 15-minute drive from Port-of-Spain. Rates may vary daily due to fluctuating exchange rates.
