The Read House Historic Inn and Suites

"Victorian Elegance"

A Chattanooga institution since 1847, this is the epitome of Old Southern elegance with ornate mahogany scrollwork adorning the spacious front lobby, along with numerous portraits of Civil War heroes. Stay at this hotel, which holds the distinction of having hosted five U.S. Presidents and other dignitaries, including Sir Winston Churchill and Eleanor Roosevelt. With its stately grandeur and elegance, The Read House Historic Inn and Suites combines the best of Victorian charm and modern convenience in the heart of Downtown Chattanooga. Business facilities include a 16,500 square feet of banquet and meeting space can accommodate 10-500 delegates. The Silver Ballroom is the jewel in the crown of this house, featuring sterling silver chandeliers adorned with Waterford crystal.
