Vintage Glory

"Bringing Vintage Back"

From cute sweaters for kids, shoes for the ladies to smart jackets and eye wear for men, Vintage Glory promises something for everyone in your family. In addition, the store has some really fine pieces of accessories, and their collection of hats has garnered quite a fan following among locals and tourists alike. The items sold here, albeit secondhand, are all gently-used and they are put up for sale only after thorough scrutiny thus offering you value for money. If you are a fan of old-world fashion then Vintage Glory is one place you must explore.

Ragpickers Anti-Fashion Emporium

"Odd Yet Beautiful"

For those with an eccentric sense of style, a visit to Ragpickers is a must. Opened in 1984, this quirky store had a humble beginning and was mostly associated with Winnipeg's theater and other arts-related activities then. Since 2013, the store has a brick and mortar form where they sell as well as rent unconventional and dramatic clothes. Whether it's a Halloween party that you need to be at or it's a play, Ragpickers Anti-Fashion Emporium will surely complete your look. The store is open to all by appointment only.
