Out Of The Blue

"Fun with Vintage Fashions"

If you are bored of following the diktats of recurrent fashion seasons and want to create your own distinctive style, head to Out Of The Blue. This boutique is all about mix-and-match: a trench coat with vintage plaid pants, a golden pleated skirt with a halter top, or a floral dress with a wood button cardigan. This store started as a vintage shop and expanded to curate a selection of rare fashions that have an instant wow factor. Earrings shaped like porcupine quills, a heritage oak wood watch, glittery owl-shaped mugs, vintage plaid skirts and Aztec-print tops are just a few of the wonderful items in its eclectic collection. You will find plenty of quirky decor to brighten your home and stunning accessories than add glam to any outfit.

October Boutique

"Eclectic & Chic"

Previously located inside the Grant Park Shopping Center, October Boutique now enjoys an independent location on Winnipeg's Corydon Avenue. This sunlit store stocks emerging trends in women's fashion, spread across several categories such as apparel, shoes, accessories and a small home-ware collection as well. Some of the styles include luxe-denims, dresses, plaid shirt-dresses and one-of-a-kind footwear. Beverly Kinahan, the owner of this stylish store, curates her store's eclectic collection by sourcing styles from brands and designers such as Allison Wonderland, Charli, Clive Glasses and Emilio Cavallini.
