Virgilio's

"Drinkers Unite"

Virgilio's is one of the most widely visited cocktail bar, where cocktails and chilled martinis are not the only drinks served here. The bar possesses a penchant for letting you drink delicious wines and scotches, from all over the world, listening to soothing lounge music, accompanied by jazz and blues. The bar is never quiet because as the night comes closer, the volumes of the music go higher, making your evening an enjoyable one.

Irish Kevin's

"Irishmen in Florida"

Irish Kevin's is all about having fun. Featuring live entertainment and friendly staff, it's a cool place to hang out, grab a beer and some food. The owner Kevin (we should have guessed!) arrived in the US in 1992 and previously performed on Duval Street, finally with his dream intact (dream of opening a watering hole) he is the regular attraction at the bar, with sing-a-long numbers and comedy skits. Also performing every night is singer/entertainer Jared Michael Hobgood.

Hog's Breath Saloon

"Groove To The Music"

At Hog's Breath, the motto is "better than no breath at all," and who can argue with that simple logic. You can even buy hats and shirts with that adroit slogan. While the restaurant and raw bar are a draw, they are not the main lure here—the sunset view is. Hog's Breath is right across the street from the Mallory Dock sunset festivities. Live entertainment goes on daily, as does the partying. Try Hog's Breath beer, raw oysters and a fish nugget sandwich with tartar sauce.
