The Classic Gateway Theatre

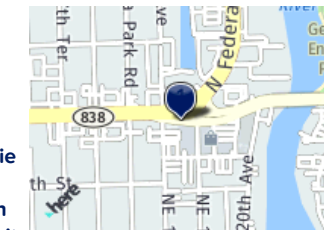

"Vintage Charm"

With a history dating back to 1951, The Classic Gateway Theatre still retains its retro charm and legacy. Offering classic hits for nostalgic movie goers as well the latest blockbusters and independent movies for the more modern cinema lover, this movie theater is one of the most loved in the neighborhood. Renovated with digital halls and comfortable seating, it also hosts festivals and other events.

Savor Cinema

"For Art Movie Fans"

Savor Cinema, formerly the Cinema Paradiso is the home-base of the Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival (FLIFF). The theater features comfortable stadium seats and a good sound system. It also has a canopied courtyard and a cafe with three bars. Showcasing only art movies year round, it is a great place for those who love creative cinema. The theater offers rental facilities for hosting private and corporate events as well.
