Inn at 410

"Pamper Yourself in the Pines"

This inn beats like a warm, welcoming heart at the center of Flagstaff's brisk mountain community, infusing the fresh pine-scented air with a note of romance. This nine-room bed and breakfast is a rustic palace with rich delights including private baths, mini-fridges and coffeemakers. Some rooms harbor hidden treasures such as Jacuzzis, tiled fireplaces, trundle beds and rich, jewel-toned comforters that bring nature's warmest colors indoors to tuck you in for a perfect night's rest.

Little America Hotel

"Relax in the Pines"

Little America Hotel offers the best of Northern Arizona in plush and presidential surroundings. From their 500-acre private forest to their friendly, knowledgeable concierge staff, Little America exemplifies the adventurous spirit and hospitality of Flagstaff. Whether you're headed for the rugged cliffs and panoramic views of the Grand Canyon or the breathtaking beauty and eclectic shops of Sedona, Little America Hotel provides the perfect accommodations. It's no wonder so many travelers view Little America as the perfect four-season escape.

Wyndham Flagstaff

"Acres of Outdoor Fun"

Situated on 2,200 acres of forested land, this extended-stay resort features two swimming pools, tennis, golf, horseback riding and children's activities. When the high-desert altitude awakens your appetite, just walk to the on-site restaurant or retreat to your spacious guest condo for a quiet snack. One and two bedroom units include telephones and fold-out sofas. Some have full kitchens, Jacuzzis and fireplaces. If all of this isn't enough to quench your thirst for outdoor fun, the resort is within two hours drive from the Painted Desert and the Grand Canyon.
