Napa Valley Wine Train

"Traveling Meals"

Hop on this train and experience a first-class meal and fine wines as you tour wine country. The train offers a champagne brunch, casual lunches and fancy dinners. It is ideal for romantic dinners, executive parties and tourist excursions. The train's decor is elegant, though daytime travels are casual. Take in the sights both outdoor and indoor: mahogany, brass and etched glass in the restored 1917 Pullman Dining Car. At the McKinstry Street Station starting point, you will find a handful of charming little shops that specialize in wine (of course), gourmet foods and gifts.

Domaine Carneros

"Blue Blood"

This is considered by many to be the most beautiful 18th-century chateau in North America. The chateau also has one of the most prominent vineyards. Domaine Carneros produces award winning sparkling and Pinot Noir wines. You'll feel just like a king in the Louis XV-style salon with gracious service to match. Snuggle up to a warm fire during the cold winter months or enjoy the summer air from the terrace. Check out the in-house store, where you can pick up a number of vintages for friends and family. The tasting tours are offered daily.

Jarvis Winery

"Underground Winery"

Jarvis Winery is an underground winery wherein the whole process of wine making is in a deep cave. The cave is parabolic and circular which enables easy movement and accessibility. The stream and waterfall running through the center of the winery helps in maintaining the humidity of the caves while adding to the beauty of the winery. Unique tastings and tours of the cave winery are scheduled every day. It is better to plan ahead, especially during the season weekends. You get to taste six of the best Jarvis wines and you can buy bottles or cases of the wines that you like at the winery itself. All in all, a unique experience wonderful wines make Jarvis a must-visit winery.

Steltzner Vineyard

"A Well-Equipped Vineyard"

Steltzner Vineyards' commercial inception dates back to 1977, when the owner, Richard Steltzner, established his own family line, with a chaste retention of 3000 cases in the famous Stag's Leap District. Ever since, the vineyard has seen positive developments with a reception hall for visitors, a very Mediterranean laboratory, offices and event rooms. The visitors can also enjoy a bird's eye-view of the green expanse atop the three-story observation clock tower here. The 1998 Sauvignon Blanc is a favorite for sure, as well as the 2003 Merbt.

Shafer Vineyards

"A Vineyard & Winery"

This beautiful vineyard, started in 1972 by John Shafer, was initially only into growing grapes. The winery began operating in 1978 and the fine wines are now available in restaurants and wine shops all across North America, Europe and Asia. Savor the One Point Five Stags Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Hillside Select. The vineyards span across 54 acres (21.8 hectares) and the slopes are covered with the very best of the juiciest grapes. Tasting sessions are available at this scenic place to learn about wine making.

Paradigm Winery

"Wine & Fruit"

Although the Paradigm Winery turns out just 5000 cases of wine a year, you can expect the best—the grapes are grown on 52 acres of vineyards, and the varieties of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Zinfandel, and Cabernet Franc mature for a minimum of 20 months in French oak barrels before being sold. This winery, located in the heart of Napa Valley, has been turning out fine wines for many years, and it also supplies fruits to other wineries in the area. All visitors must make an appointment.

Far Niente

"Fine Wine"

Far Niente functioned as a gravity flow winery till the onset of prohibition. It was in disuse for 60 years and opened again in 1979. Far Niente believes in quality and therefore they produce one Chardonnay and one Cabernet Sauvignon of the highest quality, luxury and elegance. If the wine does not meet expectations, it does not make the final blend. Both of the wines are premium wines and much sought after by the connoisseurs of California and beyond. Visitors are welcome and guided tours are offered several times during the day. You need to call ahead if you want to go on a tour of their tri-level winery, the storage caves and the carriage house which has a large collection of classic and vintage automobiles.

Inglenook

"Coppola's Gem"

Founded as Inglenook in 1880, the historic Rubicon Estate has the honor of being one of the few remaining family-owned wine estates of its magnitude in existence. It is comprised of 235 acres (95 hectares) of organically certified vineyards, and is located in Napa Valley's Rutherford appellation. Rubicon Estate is home to the region's most famous Chateau and Rubicon—the estate's flagship wine. Dominated by a special clone of Cabernet Sauvignon that can be traced back to the original vineyard plantings of 1880, Rubicon is a Bordeaux blend that reflects the unique terrain of this property. In addition to the collection of award-winning wines, Rubicon Estate offers an array of tours and tastings, some historical, others are hands-on and interactive. From guided walks through the vineyard to barrel sample tasting in the cellar, the property's tour guides are experts at creating dynamic wine experiences for all guests. The estate also is home to the Centennial Museum housing memorabilia from Francis Ford Coppola's movies.
