El Toro Restaurant

"Chateaubriand Second to None"

El Toro is known for serving some of the best Chateaubriand in the West. Located in the Irwin's Mountain Inn along Banff Avenue, it opens early and serves a great breakfast for early risers. The atmosphere is elegant and upscale but relaxed. Jeans are as welcome as suits, and the service is quick and friendly. The specialty of the house is Chateaubriand for two, but they also offer other cuisines, including fresh Mexican food and, for people who like to nibble, a selection of tapas. There is a large selection of seafood and Mediterranean and Greek entrees, as well as a full wine menu.

The original Tudor exteriors and rustic woody interiors were retained giving this place it's unique charm. ## Balkan The Greek Restaurant

"Mediterranean in the Mountains"

The Balkan is one of a few representatives of a culinary genre that is rare in the Canadian west; garlic and olive oil spiced Greek dining. While far from the rustling orchards and soft breezes of the Mediterranean, this Hellenic spot still manages to serve up a mean platter of kalamari and keftethes. Colorful Mediterranean paintings and marble busts are interspersed with clambering, tangled vines. The 20 or so tables fill up quickly around suppertime, so it's a good idea to reserve.
