BeaverTails

"BeaverTails in Banff"

The significance of Canada's national animal can be seen even in the food industry. BeaverTails, the highly popular pastry shop around Canada has been selling pastries stretched into the shape of a Beaver's tail since 1978. Favorite with locals and tourists alike for their huge range of toppings like Cinnamon & Sugar, Chocolate Hazelnut, Gelato, Maple Butter and various others, it's hard not to give into the temptation of trying one. What more, even Obama and Hilary Clinton are fans of this unique pastry shop and their delectable pastries.
