Le Sacrilège

"Bars and More"

Le Sacrilège is an eventful bar. They invite a lot of musicians from in and around Canada to come and enchant the audience with their performances. That's what makes the bar so unique- its live music tradition. They have special days where the bar serves various beers on tap such as Belle Guelle and Boreal, and they even have an interesting selection of wines. You could not ask for a better break from reality.

Bar L'Inox

"Local Brewery"

This large pub is one of the few brew-pubs in Quebec City, and is located in the Vieux-Port, a short walk from museums and antique shops. Some of the 11 beers served here at Bar L'Inox are quite unique, especially the maple syrup brew. The pub is the perfect place to enjoy a European hotdog along with a cold pint. During the summer, the terrace is one of the most popular in the city. Brews include the Trois de Pique rousse and the ominously named Dêbâcle, which is available only in the spring.
